

Dr. Aznan Hasan

Dr Aznan Hasan is a member of the Shariah Advisory Council of Bank Negara Malaysia and Securities Commission Malaysia (SC). Currently, he is also a Shariah advisor for Bursa Malaysia Berhad and a registered Shariah Advisor under Securities Commission Malaysia (SC). He is also a Bursa Malaysia's FBM Index Advisory Committee Member and a member of International Shariah Research Academy for Islamic Finance (ISRA). Prior to his appointment as the SAC member, he was the Chairman of Shariah Committee ACR Retakaful Bahrain and ACR Retakaful Malaysia.

Dr. Aznan Hasan is an Assistant Professor in Islamic law and the former Head of Islamic Law Department, Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws, International Islamic University Malaysia. He teaches subjects such as Islamic Legal Theory, Islamic Commercial Law and Islamic Banking and Finance at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels. He has served as a Shariah advisor to various financial institutions, legal firms and corporate bodies, at both local and international levels.

Amongst his publications are "An Introduction to Collective Ijtihad: Concept and Application", "A Comparative Study of Islamic Legal Maxims in Majallat al-Ahkam al-Adliyyah, Jordanian Civil Code and United Arab Emirates Law of Civil Transactions" and others.

Dr. Aznan Hasan obtained a Bachelor in Shariah (Hons.) from the University of al-Azhar, Egypt. He holds a Master in Shariah (First Class) from Cairo University, Egypt and a Ph.D from University of Wales, Lampeter, United Kingdom.